Don't Be Stubborn

Humble yourselves before the Lord, and he will lift you up.

James 4:10 (NIV)

It's important to spend time thinking about God, His Word, and how it should change your life. This is called meditating. But if you're stubborn and only care about doing things your way, it can be hard to meditate. Why? Because during your quiet time with God, He will show you the things in your life that need to change, and He won't stop until you agree that they're an issue.

If you're not willing to fix those things, you might be tempted to stop spending time with God to avoid hearing about your sins. But that would be a big mistake! Don't let sin and stubbornness stop you from getting closer to God. Instead, repent—this means agreeing that you're wrong and God is right.

When you admit your mistakes and turn back to Him, you can enjoy spending time with God again. He loves you so much that He wants to help you be free from the things holding you back.

Adapted from Charles F. Stanley, Every Day with Jesus: 365 Devotions for Kids (Nashville, TN: Tommy Nelson, 2018).

Thank you for worshipping with us today. Please fold and tear at perforation your "Get Connected" card and place in the collection plate.
